Eligibility Criteria:

- Student must be currently enrolled at the college in a matriculated degree seeking program at the time they are requesting and receiving funding
- Student must have a current FAFSA on file (accommodations can be made for undocumented students)
- Student must not have any balance owed to the college

Please note:

- Emergency funding does not cover tuition, books, laptops or payment of certification exams.
- There is no minimum or maximum amount to request. Students should think about their basic needs but be as inclusive as possible, with the understanding that the entire amount requested may not be met.

Process:

1. The student must reach out to Mr. Chris Aviles directly in order to express interest in applying for emergency funding (email is best).

2. Because there are multiple support services, the student can complete an intake form from the website indicating what assistance they are requesting. This will prompt Mr. Aviles to send the application for that specific resource. Students may also find out about emergency funding through the following website. A completed application is necessary for the process to move forward:

<https://ww2.hunter.cuny.edu/students/student-life/emergency-support-and-resources/>

3. Once the application is submitted, Mr. Aviles will be notified by the system and collect further student information through CUNYFirst in order to process the request through the appropriate offices for approval.
4. In the very best case scenario, where there are no issues with the student's application or delays in processing, we can have a check to a student anywhere from one to two weeks after the application has been received. If there are complications, the process can take slightly longer.
